Lee Shippey Writes On Forests

April 16 a noon newscast reported the first forest fire of the season, in Angeles Forest.

Most of us were shocked, believing that the winter rains and the abundant green new growth insured us against forest fires until real summer was on us.

However, we shrugged it off, for the report said only ten acres were threatened. The 2 p.m. newscast, though, said the fire had spread to 40 acres "and was not yet controlled."

Next morning's Times reported the fire had blackened 2,500 acres, and still wasn't out. The explanation was that several years of drought had killed so much underbrush that though the forests are green again much of the green is just a thin veneer over tinder dry growth.

I repeat these facts because some of us may have missed them and should consider them. Carelessness of smokers, campers or picnickers, this summer will be akin to carelessness in a powder magazine. Flowers and weeds and grasses which have sprung into loveliness fast will die and wither just as fast.

And think what it means to lose 2,500 acres of beauty and watershed, shade and refreshment.

I'VE QUIT talking about the Berlin crisis. How many years does it take for a crisis to become a habit?

Emerson Is Put on City Plan Board

Former Councilman Milton R. Emerson of 199 N. Canon Ave., now San Marino city engineer, was appointed to the Sierra Madre City Planning Commission Tuesday night. He succeeds Frank R. Parks, now city councilman.

Mr. Emerson was responsible for much of the present lighting plan for the downtown business district, and it was felt his engineering ability would be an asset to the commission.

City Treasurer Tom M. Schwartz's designation of Sidney Westfall, Mrs. Rose MacGowan and Mrs. Betty Thomas as his deputies, was approved.

NAMED BY Mayor Webster Vannier as committee on the Senior Citizens project were Councilman James F. Abernethy, chairman; Don Miller, Lachlan Foster, William Schmidt, Susan Sidle and Ellen Nourse.

Fire Marshal Bert Embree was reappointed to the Los Angeles Watershed Commission.

Baseball Season Here Opens Saturday; 'B.B. Father of the Year' to be Disclosed

Delayed 30 Days

Nuetzel Apartment Plan Is Held Over

In a session lasting until midnight, and with Council Chambers crowded with property owners, City Planning Commission, with only six members present, last Thursday night put over another 30 days decision on former Councilman Henry B. Nuetzel's plan for an initial $200,000 apartment house on his 50-acre hillside tract at 700 Acacia and 480 Foothill.

The plan in which Nuetzel, former World War flier and now engaged in private flying for government-contract firms, seeks a change from R-1-15 to R-3 zoning, has evoked considerable opposition from both adjoining property owners and others throughout the city who are protesting any deviation from the city's "Master Plan."

On the other hand, the Nuetzel proposal carries with it giving to the city, at no cost several hundred thousands of gallons of mountain water, a sizeable fact in the city's present need to enlarge its water supply. Nuetzel also argues that the city would gain more in taxes through apartment house development rather than private residential building.

NUETZEL'S request for continuance was predicated on need for further time in which to obtain his engineering firm's complete report on his plan.

With Chairman Harold G. Petz presiding, the commission devoted more than an hour to a public hearing on the Nuetzel project and in which protesters aired their views.

The commissioners also received a report from City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington in which he recited certain circumstances attending the Nuetzel-Mansur properties. The city administrator made no recommendation to the commission, merely advancing certain

Reagan was president of the Screen Actors Guild from 1947 to 1952 which included a decisive period of labor negotiations. In 1959, with an impending crisis looming in the actors' ranks, Reagan was again drafted for president of SAG, a post he resigned in 1960 to enter production.

During the past month Reagan has been honored on three occasions for his efforts on behalf of worthwhile benefits and civic enterprises. The National Conference of Christians and Jews presented Reagan with their coveted Humanitarian Award which was last given to a member of the enter-

Council Gets Busy

Speeding of Water Is Urged

With new Councilman Frank R. Parks receiving his initial baptism into councilmanic battledom, incidentally tangling with Mayor W. Webster Vannier on the question of Federal funds for municipal projects, the city fathers Tuesday night delved extensively into water problems serious for Sierra Madre.

This also embraced the N. Sunnyside and Skyland Dr. remedial flood-mud measures which it is hoped to complete this year, although methods concerning the Skyland venture remain conjectural.

James Montgomery, whose engineering firm has handled much of the city's water and sewer improvements, was designated to devise plans for the N. Sunnyside and Skyland Dr. projects which will cost around $80,000. This follows an aerial survey by City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington.

IT WAS REPORTED that the County Flood Control District has expended $82,500 in removing flood debris from the Sierra Madre area following February and March's disastrous rainfall.

Administrator Bevington reported on the meeting of the San Gabriel Valley Municipal Water District held in Alhambra last week at which steps were taken to request the State Department of Water Resources at Sacramento for an allotment of 52,000 acre-feet of water from the projected Feather River supply to be carried from the north into the Southland. This was reported fully in last week's SIERRA MADRE NEWS in a series of articles which will be resumed next week.

Two methods of getting Sierra Madre's share of this 52,000 acre-feet to this city have been proposed. One is via tunnel from Pearblossom; the other from a point

There were 225 dozen eggs gaily decorated, plus 58 golden eggs entitling finders to specially decorated baskets. Here Debbie Rhodes, Joan Cline and Teddy Palmer joyously find baskets and eggs.

Seiler to Speak Tonight

The public is invited to this meeting sponsored by the Department of Christian Citizenship of the WCTU.

3-Day Phone Rate Hearing Affecting Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch, Ends Today

The three-day hearing conducted by the Public Utilities Commission in Arcadia City Council Chambers and in which Hastings Ranch and Sierra Madre residents charge the California Water and Telephone Co., provides poor service in this area, is expected to be concluded today.

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. is linked with California Water and Phone in the complaints, the former in Pasadena, Sierra Madre, Alhambra and Arcadia. The original complaints were filed last year.

Don Munro, chairman of the Hastings Ranch Telephone Improvement Association, presented a petition signed by 1,349 subscribers out of a total of 1,800 telephone subscribers in his area requesting substitution of Pacific for California in Hastings Ranch. He submitted 350 signed complaints on service. City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington presented Sierra Madre's complaint of high costs.

THOSE TESTIFYING included J. M. Thornton, 3995 E. Foothill Blvd., owner of Thornton's Bakery; William H. Benke, 600 Sierra Madre Villa Ave., representing the All-State Insurance Co., and James M. Carl, 460 Sierra Madre Villa Ave., of the Electro-Data Division, Burroughs Corp. They said costs charged by California Water and Telephone are double that of Pacific Telephone for comparable equipment.

Munro asserted that a Symcamer exchange would permit free dialing. Under California's ELgin exchange such calls require paid message units.

The Hastings Ranch stand was substantiated by Fred Mathene, assistant city attorney for Pasadena who said that "we have heard complaints for ten years regarding the cost differential and

Alverno Parents Sponsor Mother-Daughter Fashions

"In spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love" . . . a young lady, to enhancement of her appearance, to be "Sweeter Than Springtime."

Since high school girls are not immune to such thoughts, new wardrobes are of much importance during the Easter season. For this reason the second annual Mother-Daughter Fashion Tea sponsored by the Alverno Parents Association of Alverno Heights Academy, Sierra Madre, will be held on Saturday afternoon, April 28, at 1:30 p.m.

The spacious gardens which surround the former Barlow estate with its many imported plants and unusual flowers will form the background for the members of Alverno Heights Student Body who will model fashions while strolling through the grounds.

THE ACADEMY, conducted by the Sisters of St. Francis of Penance and Christian Charity, occupies the former Barlow site at the foot of the Sierra Madre Mountains.

A reception line of faculty members and student officers will follow the modeling of fashions, with a formal tea served in the "Great Hall" closing the social activity.

Latest in fashionable attire for high school girls from Field's Women's Apparel Shop of Hastings Ranch will be shown by the following students: Cathy Brown, Joan Cain, Jean DeCarolis, Julie Dykzeul, Margaret Eshom, Maureen Kenney, Denis Schuler, Dian Sullivan, Laurel Szatlocky, Barbara Tamarro, Maureen Taylor and Corinne Webber. They will be directed by Mrs. George Kohl, assisted by Mrs. A. W. Bomberg, Gifford Glasscock and Peter Carberry. Miss Peggy Strange will be commentator.

Has the PTA lost its vitality, is it a monthly bore, is it a mere fund raising device? Such are the questions raised by the author of a provocative but not antagonistic article entitled "Is PTA Doing Anything For Our Schools?" in the May issue of Better Homes and Gardens magazine.

Before you jump to the conclusion that I'm anti-PTA for daring to reprint such questions, I hasten to remind you that space in this column is regularly and generously given to the support of various PTA activities.

Indeed, I often have to scratch my gray matter to think of new ways to stimulate reader interest in PTA meetings. It strikes me that this is a timely topic since delegates from local PTA units will soon be taking off for their state convention in San Francisco.

Whatever the PTA lacks can be blamed in part, I believe, on apathy and lack of time. I suggest that many parents in today's hustle and bustle may be unintentionally uninformed about such PTA and school related topics as a three million dollar PTA Building being erected on Wilshire Blvd., or that taxes may be raised to support the local child care centers; or that the local school board has just requested more Federal aid under the National Defense Act — this time $25,500 to be matched with local funds for supplementary materials in math, science, language labs, computing laboratory and planetarium!

I mean, how many of us take the time to know such things. But just let our PTA send out a plea for parents help with a fund raising carnival, show, membership drive, or what have you and Mom and Dad usually find the time! Hope I've piqued

The PLAZA Shop Talk

By Sewall Clark

HAVE YOU ever looked into the eyes of an animal when it wants to talk to you? Makes no difference what kind of animal. The sincerity is so real, so free from the technicality of words, that you get the message immediately.

With people, of course, it's different. Some are so cagey it's difficult to know what they're saying unless you take it to an attorney or the Supreme Court.

IN JOURNALISM you listen to a lot of people. One way to gain information is to play dumb. (With me, that's easy). It isn't spying. It's merely a matter of learning about things, such as "sailing ships and sealing wax and cabbages and kings." (How do you spell Lewis Carroll, or "walrus"?) If you think I'm talking over somebody's head (not yours, I'm sure) then you know how I feel when I'm with people in the garment industry.

TRUDIE, my wife, is the genius of the Plaza Shop because she knows both sides of the industry; fashion designing and manufacturing. But me — well, I'm still trying to find out why a dress is size 10 in one line and a size 12 in another. If it fits, WHO CARES?

Sure, there's always the story about the woman who insists on buying a size 4 shoe even when she knows, and the salesman knows, that her Godgiven foot is a size 6. (Why not bless what you have and stop quibbling?) We do NOT sell shoes, but I still worry about women like that. Seems to me their feet must hurt.

IF I WERE an animal (Re-incarnation? Please. I'd rather be a seagull) you could tell by looking into my eyes that I wasn't kidding last week about the dresses Trudie found inside the famous "Edith Small Collection."

We have them on consignment for only three weeks because we couldn't afford them otherwise. They are beyond our usual price-range, but if they fit you — you've hit a goldmine.

Or, if you don't want to take my word for it, you can tell by the misty look in the eyes of the women who have worn them.

by dancing at the C. D. Hays. Mrs. Edward Rosic and Mrs. Charles Eldson are co-chairmen.

Those planning to attend include Messrs. and Mrs. Richard Esbanshade, William Ewing, Robert Farmer, LeRoy Frandsen, Charles Harrison, Harold Hennacy, Kenneth Holloway, Ralph Johnson, George Mannschreck, Robert Meason, John Norris, Robert Hunt, Jack Parich, Forrest Paxson, Wells Pleas, Eugene Rode, Edward Rosic, Neil Rowley, Edward Watts, Daniel Wells, Darrell Wright, (she's prexy), Gordon Wright and Hazel Ritter.

FRIENDLY COOPERATION: Today Hastings Ranch Needlework Guild will not begin their meeting at the customary hour of 11 a.m. Instead they'll begin at 12:30 which allows many to attend the Republican Club Fashion show at the Shakespear Club before gathering at Mrs. Howard Heimbrich's Valley View home for the Guild meeting. Mmes. Ralph Anderson, Clifford Voge and Frank White are hostesses for the afternoon meeting.

DONNING THEIR Easter bonnets Tuesday, Las Jardineras Home and Garden Club members were off for their annual luncheon tour. It was Woody and Eddie's for cocktails and luncheon and then on to Rose Hills and a tour of the rose gardens.

The wonderful afternoon was planned by Mrs. Jack Washburn, (before she was incapacitated by a skiing accident), and carried on by her able committee — Mmes. Richard Hubbell, Draper Jennings and Marvin Loomis.

EASTER BASKETS for Senior Citizens was the philanthropic project executed by Las Jardineras members when they gathered at Mrs. John Atkinson's home last Friday to fill colorful baskets with candy and small luxury items. The Easter Bunny took it from there, and saw to it they were all delivered Sunday morning to the senior citizens of Crestview Lodge in Sierra Madre.

GOOD NEWS! Evelyn and Dick Cannon will not be leaving their Shadow Grove home after all. For a time it looked as though they would be transferred to Michigan or Texas. "Either would have been too cold or too hot for we native Californians," says Evelyn.

Plans changed when Dick became West Coast representative for Malco Electronics Company which means Evelyn will continue to direct the Field Mothersingers and their daughter and three sons will not be changing schools.

that the Louisiana political boss who has been excommunicated by his Roman Catholic archbishop for defying his order to desegregate parochial schools, as well as the law of the land, upheld by Federal courts, retorted that the whole desegregation effort was a scheme of International Communism.

I do not know of any organization which is more completely and soundly opposed to International Communism than is the Roman Catholic Church, so this incident points to the fact that some persons can try to make anything they do or refuse to do respectable by cloaking it in anti-Communism.

IT IS WELL to remember that J. Edgar Hoover recently warned, in a magazine article, against being misled by "amateur anti-Communist movements" and advised that it is best to trust in the FBI and other governmental agencies which have been studying Communism a long time to take or propose any measures deemed necessary.

Most of all of us are, and ought to be, anti-Communist, but we should beware of those who follow every pronouncement against Communism by passing the collection plate.

The Constitution is the solid rock on which our liberties are founded and I would hesitate to see any of its guarantees curtailed, even if some of them do at times give crackpots some temporary protection.

Never could quite figure out just how the bunny got into the act to deliver all the chicken's eggs. Everyone has to get their cut. We've just eaten the last egg in a rather heavy creamed cheese sauce to cover that refrigerated taste we get after a few days lying around in one easy chair or another.

I was beginning to feel like a setting hen. Every time I sat down there was a nest under me.

Now all I have to worry about is getting rid of the cellophane bag that seems to defy modern science and stick to everything in spite of arduous sweeping and energetic vacuuming. Well, there's always May Day!

Also, happy birthday anniversary, Gloria and Ernie!

MR. AND MRS. ED HALPERIN of Old House Rd. entertained their bridge group at a dinner party last week. From the sound of some of the recipes, that gang couldn't afford to get together calorie-wise too often. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Moffatt, Mr. and Mrs. Len Evers and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Asher.

EASTER SUNDAY brought the George Amthor family back from the beach in time to entertain their pot-luck party at the annual Easter egg hunt and breakfast. They have a marvelous big yard which more than adapts itself to that sort of outdoor fun.

The party included the Ralph Paquettes and their four children, the Ben Rogers and their four, the A. J. Hubers with five children, the John Wiles with four, the seven children of the Jim Germaines, who are presently touring Europe, and finally the six Amthor children.

There was hardly a quiet moment all day, but the whole gang had a memorable time.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES SMITH of Sierra Madre Villa were among the recent hosts and hostesses. They had a cocktail and dinner party for a group of their friends who included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dearden, Mr. and Mrs. John Flaherty, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Maple, Mr. and Mrs. John Endicott, Mr. and Mrs. David Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peters, Mr. and Mrs. King Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stockman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shonstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morgridge, Mr. and Mrs. Al Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Hawkins.

ENJOINED PLAYING bridge last week with the Rosemary Cottage Villa Guild. I don't know how good our bridge was but we had a fine time anyway.

Those there were the hostesses, Mrs. Edwin Pyle; Mrs. John Cove, Mrs. Lincoln Wilson, Mrs. Norman White, Mrs. Edward Halperin, Mrs. F. R. Anderson and Mrs. Joseph Mangano.

Incidentally, Mrs. Pyle had a house guest who is known and liked by many of us. She had to leave the day of the bridge, so we didn't get to see her. She was Mrs. William Benson of Santa Ana. They took in the "West Side Story" during her stay, with a fancy dinner at the Tahitian following.

VACATIONERS included Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lackey and their daughter, Jennifer. They returned Easter Sunday after a ten-day stay at Aliso where they got in plenty of horseback riding. The Robert Muellers took their two children down San Diego way for a long weekend.

The Charles Goldsworthy family spent some time at the beach.

SOME OF the Kinneloa women have decided they want to be better informed about some of our current events. They had the first meeting of the group last week at the home of Mrs. Al Richards to see how everyone felt on the subject.

After much discussion and a delightful lunch it was decided that this should be a regular affair.

On deck that day were Mmes. Howard Morgridge, Richard Davidson, Clarence Kanak, Frank Ferris, Walter Opp, John Berringer, Ted White and Rand Lewis.

VACATIONING at the desert for a week were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Tumilty.

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD Candy Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tom Crawford of Sierra Madre Villa, had an Easter vacation she will long cherish. She spent her vacation with a group of teenagers in Hawaii.

The trip was under auspices of the Pasadena YMCA and was chaperoned by several elementary school teachers. They all stayed at the Kalia Hotel in Waikiki.

In the eight days they were there they were treated to the Circle Island Tour, a real luau, a visit to the International Market Place, a tour through a pineapple factory and sugar plantation. They attended the different Easter services at some of the oldest churches on the island.

Printer Is Found Dead

Kirk E. Kruckewitt, 48, a printer and Sierra Madrean for 14 years, was found dead face down on the floor on April 18 when his wife, Mrs. Alene A. Kruckewitt and their guest, A. Hamilton of Tarentum, Pa., returned to the home at 801 Skyland Dr., following a visit to Disneyland.

Dr. Norman F. Johnson of the Sierra Madre Medical Center, attributed death to heart trouble. Mr. Kruckewitt had complained of not feeling well and so had not accompanied his wife and Mr. Hamilton to Disneyland.

IN ADDITION to his wife, he is survived by a son, John Eberle Kruckewitt of Southgate; a daughter, Mrs. Doris Ray Harvey of Saginaw, Mich., and five grandchildren.

Services were at 2 p.m. Monday at the Ripple Mortuary Chapel, with Rev. Donald H. Ostrander of Trinity Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interment in Rose Hills Cemetery.

The future is merely a reflection of today's act and deeds.

Masons Take Lead Role In School Week

With the Sierra Madre Lodge of Masons taking a leading role, as has been the case for many years, Public School Week gets under way this Saturday at 7 p.m. when teachers and pupils will be specially recognized during a ceremonial dinner at the Masonic Temple.

Principal speaker will be E. Howard Floyd, assistant superintendent in charge of instruction for the Pasadena School System, of which Sierra Madre is a part.

A SPECIAL CITATION will be given this year to Mrs. Jean Lumsdon, 1st grade teacher, who is retiring, and who has been chosen as "Teacher of the Year."

Open houses in both Sierra Madre and Sierra Mesa Schools start Monday night and at which room exhibits will be open for visitation. The general public is invited. These start at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. W. Rothwell Heads Alumni Day Banquet Unit

Mrs. William A. (Margaret) Rothwell of 635 Mariposa Ave., Sierra Madre, has been named reservations chairman for the International Relations Banquet to be held in connection with the University of Southern California Alumni Day this Saturday.

Mrs. Rothwell is an honor graduate of the USC School of International Relations.

POOR CONTACTS

Gifted students who show sparks of genius while in school often develop ignition trouble when they get on their own.

Skateboard Rider Hit by Pickup Truck

A youth on a skateboard was struck by a pickup truck last Friday, suffering a slight concussion and pavement burns. The accident occurred on E. Sierra Madre Blvd., near Holdman.

The injured boy was Ted Lighthizer, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester F. Lighthizer of 100 Colony Dr. He was ambulated to Sierra Madre Community Hospital where Dr. Norman F. Johnson attended him.

The truck driver, Rodolfo Moreno of 1573 S. California, Monrovia, advised Police Officer Douglas Tucker that he was driving east on E. Sierra Madre Blvd. at moderate speed when young Lighthizer jumped from his skateboard directly in front of the truck.

YOUNG LIGHTHIZER told police he suddenly lost control of the skateboard and was thrown in front of the truck. Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan took the occasion to warn youngsters about using skateboards in the streets, terming them a potential danger to their riders. The chief also emphasized that city law prohibits use of skateboards on streets where traffic is heavy.

Ward Tract Use Remains Uncertain

Disposition of the valuable tract of land at N. Mountain Trail and E. Laurel, now occupied by the Barrett's Home Gardens, remains uncertain, according to its owner, E. Waldo Ward of 273 E. Highland.

With the Barretts scheduled to discontinue nursery operations some time in June, future use of this large parcel remains speculative. However, it will not be used, Mr. Ward says, for an extension of his preserving establishment located directly to the east and southeast.

There is the possibility that it may be the scene of a subdivision or apartment house development, though this has not been determined.

Guy Rossi Back at Postoffice

Guy Rossi of 520 W. Laurel, Sierra Madre assistant postmaster, who was operated on several weeks ago at Sierra Madre Community Hospital for a serious bone affliction, has returned to his postal duties. During his absence his work was taken over by Dan Daniels.

Attempt to Enter Dr. D'Arcy Office

The burglar making the downtown business district his field continues his operations.

This time he attempted to enter the office of Dr. Daniel L. D'Arcy, optometrist, at 62 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., by removing a pane of glass from a rear window early last Sunday. However, he was scared away before effecting entrance.

This followed the attempt a few nights previous to enter the Neale Insurance Agency office at 20 N. Baldwin in which the burglar also was scared away.

Lucky Prize Winners at Travel Show

Several lucky residents went home from the recent Travel Film Show at the Sierra Madre School with valuable door prizes contributed by merchants.

The Mullaevy family of 510 E. Grand View Ave., took top honors, with young Perry taking home two fine Acrlan pillows, courtesy of Brown's Furniture, while Father William became the fortunate possessor of a patio lamp from Toy and Patio Village.

Mrs. Ruth Cousins of 414 Auburn Ave. drew the fine steak knife set, contributed by Jimed Richfield Station, and Mrs. Margot Schluter of 449 Theresa Lane won the perfume package given by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fleming.

NEARBY RESIDENTS also fared well, with the Frandsen family, Mrs. Richard and Mrs. Elinor of 2210 Ciela Place in Arcadia winning a five-pound ham from Roess Market, and a set of travel posters, and Mrs. A. E. Kiersey of 3625 Laidfair, Pasadena, drawing the valuable gift of a box of hose from Gullett and Harris.

Another Sierra Madrean won a second set of travel posters, Harold McCandless of 245 W. Grand View Ave.

Mrs. Meth Hackney of Hackney Travel Associates, who presented the Travel Film Show, advises that the next, and last, in the present series of these interesting evenings, will be held on Wednesday, May 9. Details of the program will be announced later.

Steckel Topic Is 'Blessings'

Sabbath services will be conducted by Rabbi Charles W. Steckel on Friday night, April 27, starting at 8:30 p.m., at the Foothill Jewish Community Center, 212 N. Lima St., Sierra Madre. Dr. Steckel will speak on "Number the Days and Count the Blessings."

Hosts for the Oneg Shabbat social and refreshment hour following the services, will be Mr. and Mrs. Perry Freeman of Arcadia. Everyone is most cordially invited.

POLISHER DONATED

The Woman's Ruth Society has donated a new floor polisher to the Sierra Madre Methodist Church.

Mistakes by Doubters Is Hansen Topic

"Honest Doubts" about the resurrection of Christ will be the topic of Rev. Ray E. Hansen at the 10:10 a.m. worship this Sunday, April 29, at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre. "Doubting Thomas, who loved the Lord, made one mistake," Pastor Hansen will say. "He withdrew from his brother Christians, he missed the first coming of Jesus. We miss a great deal when we separate our lives from the Christian church, especially after Easter."

HOLY BAPTISM will be administered during the service. The choir directed by Charles E. Markham, with Courtney Goff at the organ, will sing "Lift Thine Eyes." Christian education classes for all ages, including the adult Bible discussion, led by the pastor, are offered at 9 a.m. There is nursery and child care provided at the 10:10 a.m. worship.

By John Baldwin Seales

Despite Col. Glenn's remarkable feat, it will be some time before we can book you on a rocket trip to the moon! However, you can still find a number of ways to journey around the world, and if you take a little longer about it than did the Friendship 7, you will have the compensation of making your trip in somewhat greater comfort.

IN THE CASE of Round the World travel there are good reasons why an escorted tour offers advantages to many travelers, particularly in regard to hotels and sightseeing. Where the latter is concerned it is often feasible to set up special arrangements for a group that would be prohibitively expensive for individuals, so tour members often see more than they could on their own.

SUCH TRIPS are expertly planned, well managed, and far from being the "shepherd" type of thing that many imagine them to be. We have an excellently varied selection of R.T.W. programs from which you may choose, ranging from de luxe itineraries of a most comprehensive kind, costing upwards of $4,000, to shorter, more standardized routings for as little as $2,100. All offer excellent value for money.

SOME USE air transportation exclusively; others mix air and sea travel as may provide the best convenience, and there are some R.T.W. possibilities using sea travel only.

FOR THE MORE adventurous inclined, for those who wish to include centers not usually found in the standard routings, we can set up independent arrangements, and have most comprehensive facilities for operating trips of this kind.

A FALL DEPARTURE across the Pacific is a fine time to set out on a journey around the world—Let us help you to make this the time when you join that exclusive group who can claim to have circled the globe!

Bethany Notes

Chaplain John J. Penner from the Harbor General Hospital in Torrance will be main speaker for the monthly meeting of the Bethany Church Missionary Society May 1.

The day will start with "work activity" at 9:30 a.m. at the church, Baldwin and Montecito in Sierra Madre.

A fellowship luncheon will follow after which Chaplain Penner will speak. His topic will be "Diamonds in the Rough" which relates his experiences as chaplain of Harbor General Hospital.

Anna Marie Browning, president of the women's group, urges all women to take this opportunity to share in needy projects during the work time and then to hear Chaplain Penner. Nursery care will be provided.

DR. ROBERT N. SCHAPER, Bethany pastor, had the privilege of ministering to the staff workers from Forest Home Conference Center as they met in their annual staff retreat at Palm Springs. Dr. Schaper spoke on the evening of April 23 and then on Tuesday through Wednesday noon. Mrs. Schaper accompanied him to the desert city.

Almost 100 persons from the congregation at Bethany Church will attend the third biennial Family Conference at Arrowpines Conference Grounds near Lake Arrowhead this weekend, April 27, 28 and 29.

Rev. Charles L. Miller, editorial director of curriculum at Gospel Light Publishing House, will be the main speaker.

BETHANY CHURCH will hold their annual Month of Missions again in May this year, according to Committee Chairman Rev. Hugh S. Bell, Jr.

He announces that Mrs. Gladys Aylward, the "Small Woman" of China will begin the month-long mission emphasis as speaker on Sunday morning May 6 for both the 8:15 and 11 a.m. worship hours.

The month-long format calls for missionary speakers for both the morning and evening services and following the evening services an outstanding missionary film will be shown.

On Wednesday evening another unique feature will be presented as specialized missionary activity will be presented.

'Probation After Death' Is Topic

How divine guidance aids man in his efforts to make spiritual progress will be brought out Sunday at all Christian Science Church services. The golden text is from James (1:12), "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love Him."

The lesson-sermon entitled "Probation After Death" will include these words of the Psalmist, "As for God, His way is perfect; the word of the Lord is tried; He is a buckler to all those that trust in Him . . . It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect" (18:30, 32).

WORDS that COMFORT

The Lord is my Shepherd:
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:
He leadeth me
beside the still waters.
PSALM 23:1-2

There is solace in the inspired words of the Bible, for those who must bear the burden as much as possible by handling complete funeral arrangements for them.

Salute to Mayor Vannier

The newly-constituted City Council faces a number of problems vital to the future of Sierra Madre, and we believe that it was wise to again designate W. Webster Vannier for a second term as mayor of this municipality.

This newspaper hasn't always agreed with Mayor Vannier. We believe that as a parliamentarian he could shorten Council meetings by one-fourth the time now consumed. We believe that at times he leans backward in affording dissident groups too many hearings and too much time in presenting their opinions.

The street lighting project was one in which there were four public hearings when two would have sufficed and still be fair. Also we question the appointment to the lighting committee of a Sierra Madrean who wishes to keep this city "quaint" rather than progressive.

BUT WE KNOW, and well, Mayor Vannier's inherent honesty, his tenaciousness and fighting ability, and above all, his first-hand knowledge of this his native city. These attributes are a vast asset to Sierra Madre and so the SIERRA MADRE NEWS thoroughly approves of the honor paid him by his colleagues.

We know that the municipal ship of state is safe under his good and honest leadership. The same is true of Councilman James F. Abernethy chosen as vice-mayor.

Shell, Sensible Leader

If he wins in the Republican primary against such a notable as Richard M. Nixon, former vice president, and goes ahead to defeat Governor Edmund G. Brown, the Democratic incumbent at Sacramento, Assemblyman Joe Shell can become "a child of political destiny," who after his terms or term as Governor can readily step into the national limelight as leader of the nation's Conservatives.

There is a ground swell of Conservatism swinging throughout the country, and strange to say, especially among the young folk, and Shell, as an earnest, sincere and able leader dedicated to Conservatism's triumph in both state and national affairs, can side its crest to a victory both for the people and himself, provided he keeps his head and doesn't meander down primrose pathways such as some other leaders have done.

AFTER LISTENING to him speak recently before a packed audience comprising members of the doctors' association in Pasadena, and to the Young Republican organization in Glendora, we are convinced that here is a leader capable of returning California to its sensible, workable political guidance and to stop the outflow of industry from the state as well as to repair our tenuous tax structure, remedy our unemployment picture and put taxes on a level encouraging to private enterprise.

Here's hoping that Shell continues to adhere to his announced principles of Conservatism, does not fall for any of the fallacious, roseate dogmas of Socialism or the Welfare State, and wins in both June and November.

He is an attractive campaigner, splendidly sincere, and if he becomes Governor, can then set his sights on Washington, D.C. They need the likes of him both there and in Sacramento.

Spanking Good Question

A paperback book sold cheaply for volume output, published by Doubleday and edited by Rep. James Roosevelt, California Democrat, and titled "Liberal Papers," contains a number of essays in which the authors recommend the following:

Recognition of and air to Red China; the demilitarization of West Germany, expulsion of West Germany, France and Italy from NATO; permitting Communist Russia to plug in on our DEW Line to warn them of any surprise attacks by the United States; total disarmament save for a United Nations police force which would have bases in every country, including the United States.

There is little need for lengthy comment on this abortion.

SUCCIENTLY, it can be labelled — and correctly — as Treasonable, Pro-Communist and Atheistic.

Rep. Roosevelt says this of the book which designates him as its editor:

"It goes without saying that I do not subscribe with everything the contributors have said in this volume of the 'Liberal Papers'."

How silly and unpatriotic can Rep. Roosevelt become? That's a spanking good question.

And Once We Had It

Our esteemed contemporary, The San Gabriel Valley Sunday Tribune, prints the following editorial titled "Quick, Easy Transportation. Valley Cities Once Had It," which we are certain will prove nostalgic to many Sierra Madreans: Can you picture a vast electric railway system crisscrossing the San Gabriel Valley? Connecting each city in the Valley directly with downtown Los Angeles?

Wouldn't it be nice to be able to go from Baldwin Park to Pasadena or Sierra Madre without fighting traffic or without parking trouble at the end of the trip?

Many of us who have lived all our lives in this valley can easily picture such a situation, because that's exactly what he had not too many years ago.

THE ONLY EVIDENCE of the electric system that remains today are the extra-wide streets scattered around. It was Henry Huntington who was responsible for the "Red Cars," as we used to call them.

For 15 cents a traveler could go from Arcadia to downtown Los Angeles in a spacious electric car. There

MRS. EMILY EMBREE stars as mother of ten, raiser of prize orchids and animals, notably ocelots with whom she is here shown.

Thursday, April 26, 1962 SIERRA MADRE NEWS—11

Emily Embree Is Orchid Grower, Animal Raiser, Mother of Ten Children

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second of an interesting series depicting some of the interesting people among whom we dwell.

By Den Murray

A dazzling profusion of handsome kids and exotic orchids on a field of big yellow school buses!

Such could have been the eloquent coat-of-arms of Sierra Madre's Elvin Embree family were heraldry still in style.

Site of this delightful, exciting explosion in population and flowers is a vine-facaded 21-room home at 214 W. Carter, where pretty, astonishingly youthful looking (see cut) Emily Embree stars as wife, mother, and custom florist.

WITH TEN GLOWING young Embrees, either of school age or headed towards it, one might suspect Papa and Mama Embree had been farsightedly insuring the business future of the family-owned company that operates the fleet of familiar yellow school buses.

But no, a few moments spent in the Embree manse supplies the true explanation.

Luxuriant stand of young Embrees, "and that church would be St. Rita's, no doubt."

"No, Methodist," smiled our lady of the green thumb.

MRS. EMBREE'S commercial florists business conducted at home, specializes in wedding and reception floral pieces made only to order. Recent greenhouse expansion supplies a wide choice of flowers in addition to orchids.

Other questioning revealed: domestic help comes from an Ecuadorian girl—Dioselina Reyes—pets have included such unusual playmates as an ocelot, and currently feature a macaw, kinkajou, Siamese cat and white Persian who recently got into the spirit of things by contributing five kittens to the fertile scene.

INTERESTING FAMILY? We leave it to you. Regardless, you'll come away from a visit to the Embrees impressed by the solid commonsense of the parents and stimulating atmosphere of fun and affection and zest for living.

"West Side Story" and kindred works of William Faulkner, Erskine Caldwell and Tennessee Williams can take the Oscars. We'll take the American family image as projected by the Embrees. Shown abroad—the world might think better of us.

OUT OF THE COBWEEBS

37 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, May 1, 1925—Sierra Madre now has a population of 4,900, according to best estimates which can be obtained during the years when there is no Federal census.

The new Hotel Sierra Madre will soon be in operation, according to H. A. Harmon who, with Mrs. Harmon, will operate the house. There are 29 rooms in the hotel, all of them furnished with a bath.

The Priscillas met Thursday afternoon at Hartwood, home of Mrs. Thomas Hart in Sierra Madre Villa.

The Pacific Electric degree team conferred the degree of Master Mason on Herbert Clark at the Sierra Madre Masonic Lodge Tuesday night. A large crowd of visiting Masons was present.

19 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, April 29, 1943—Sierra Madre improved on its observance of blackout regulations during the 55-minute air raid alarm of Easter Sunday night, but there was still plenty of room for improvement, according to officers of the Council of Civilian Defense. Street lights and those in the downtown areas went out within a minute after the warning siren began to wail. This feature of the blackout was most satisfactory to date, but air raid wardens were obliged to report that many places in the residential districts had to be warned to douse their lights.

Enlistment of Miss Bonita Williams, 23-year-old daughter of Mrs. Edith Boyer Williams of 400 Mariposa Ave., and the late Guy Williams, prominent real estate dealer, in the Spars, the women's reserve of the Coast Guard, is announced by the Pasadena Navy Recruiting Station. She will leave for Hunter College, New York, within the next ten days where she will take training and graduate with a petty officer's rating.

13 YEARS AGO THIS

were no fumes, no noise. You could get a transfer for a penny and go to Pasadena, El Monte or Sierra Madre.

It was possible to travel to the foothill in an electric car and then transfer to a cable car which went almost all the way to Mt. Wilson — up to the 4,000-foot level.

Another line ran down the center of San Bernardino Road through El Monte and Baldwin Park.

HUNTINGTON'S VAST system linked the San Gabriel Valley directly to San Pedro Harbor and the amusement pier at Venice. The rail car actually ran on the pier out over the water.

But it was decided the giant Red Cars were unsightly. Along about 20 years ago town after town voted to get rid of the Red Cars. They were replaced with gasoline-driven "modern" buses. All the tracks in the divider strips were torn up and the strips were "beautified."

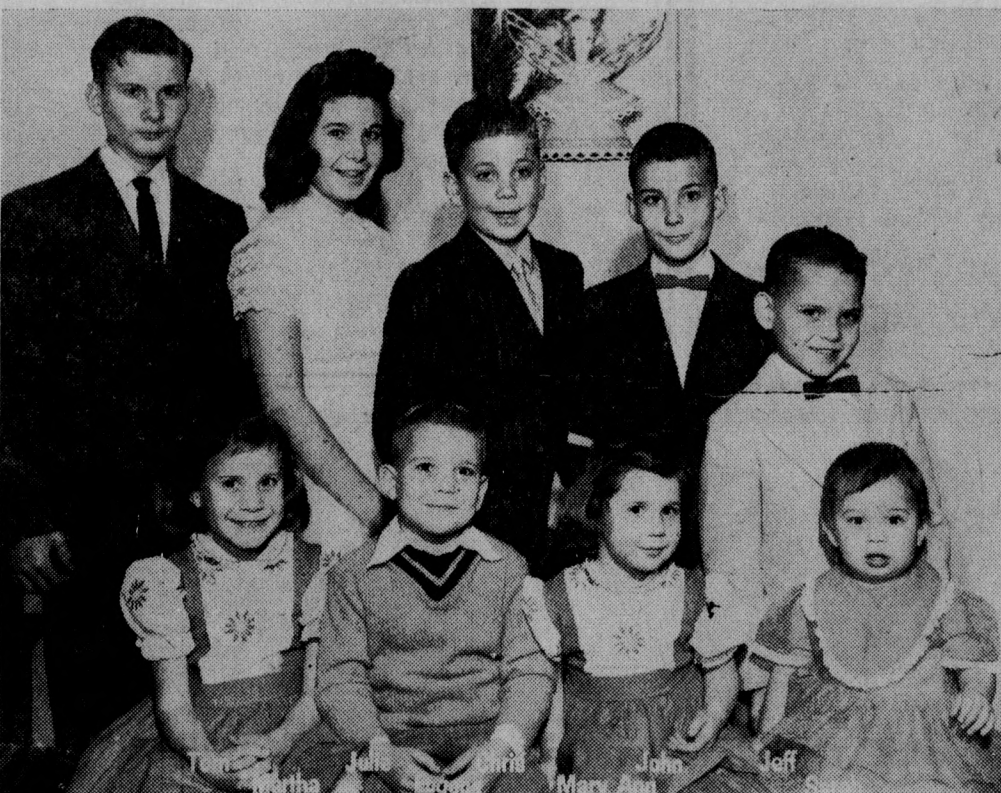

THIS WAS "PROGRESS." The buses were forced to mingle with the traffic. Congestion became so heavy the buses we have today hardly move, and hundreds of thousands of commuters prefer to drive their own cars.

The city of Los Angeles recently paid more than a quarter of a million dollars for a survey company to tell them what is the answer to our daily traffic jams.

It was recommended that a giant electric car system be built, linking the surrounding communities directly with Los Angeles.

IF THIS is done, Valleyites will be able to take a nice modern electric car directly to Pasadena, Sierra Madre or El Monte, enjoying a smooth ride, no grinding of gears, no gasoline fumes, no noisy engines.

Excuse me, but isn't this where we came in?

HERE ARE NINE children in the Embree family — Baby Andrew Glen hadn't arrived in time for this '61 Christmas picture of the Embree brood.

WEEK, April 28, 1949—Two new members will take their place on the City Planning Commission at its regular meeting tonight. They are Mrs. A. E. Morgan and W. W. Gildersleeve. Their appointments were announced Tuesday by the City Council. They replace Commissioners Frank Spencer and W. Webster Vannier. Spencer, whose four-year term was up, notified Council that he would not accept reappointment. Vannier simply resigned.

Mrs. Nathan Jacobs will serve another term as PTA president. Other officers elected with Mrs. Jacobs at the PTA meeting last Thursday afternoon were Mrs. Charles Jones, first vice president; Mrs. J. E. Willis, second vice president; Mrs. Frank Holloway, recording secretary; Mrs. L. A. Moffett, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Bulan, treasurer; Mrs. Saline Pascal, historian; Kenneth Carlson, auditor; and Mrs. H. E. Haymaker, parliamentarian.

Easter Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nuetzel of 718 W. Alegria entertained Mrs. Nuetzel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hollingsworth; her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hollingsworth, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hollister, all of Los Angeles.

7 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, April 28, 1955—Mrs. Donald McAdam was elected president of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association following reports of outgoing officers and committee chairmen.

Other board members for the year 1955-56 are: Mrs. Robert G. Jacobs, retiring president who now becomes first vice president; William V. Vensel, second vice president; Evan Whitlock, treasurer; Mrs. Sam Rudnick, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Richard P. Schuster Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Gerald P. Marugg Jr., personnel chairman; James L. Tattersall, facilities; Mrs. C. M. Shafer, membership; Mrs. J. Raguel Troll, ways and means; Mrs. Paul Campion, public relations; Mrs. Carl (Peggy) Cheadle, bulletins; Mrs. John C. Loomis Jr., handbook; Mrs. Charles R. Foster, nursery school auxiliary representative. Paul Campion, Group II Father; Lloyd Fughe, Group III Father; William M. Hawkins Jr., Gifford E. Eastwood, Lorne Pratt and Robert H. Green, community members.

Long Beach Licks Subsidence Peril

By Henry MacArthur
(Capitol News Service—Special to the Sierra Madre News)

LONG BEACH — An amazing transition has taken place in the city of Long Beach.

Four years ago, it was almost a dying city, sinking slowly into the sea. Property values were decreasing, talk of abandoning the extensive Navy base was far from idle and generally, the attitude of its citizens was one of hopeless despair.

Today, Long Beach is a city of aggressive determination. Property values are rising. It is on its way to becoming one of the top, if not the top port of the West.

The city has long-range plans for the future, plans which when fulfilled will make it one of the most attractive spots in the nation in many different fields. And it is proceeding with its plans as fast as human energy can operate.

FOUR YEARS AGO, when Long Beach was sinking, talk of a World Fair in the community would have been amusing.

Today, the city is proceeding confidently toward an International Exposition in 1966, to be held on a spit of filled land which is now nothing but ocean.

One might well ask what has caused this remarkable change. The answer is simple. Long Beach believes it has whipped its subsidence problem, and that by 1964, there will be no more sinking. Already, the sinking has been halted to the point where it is less than an inch a year, against a total in one spot of 27 feet.

CESSATION of the sinking has been accomplished through joint efforts and

Pack No. 381 Shows Talent Giving Skits

Cub Scout Pack 381 held its monthly pack meeting at Sierra Madre School on Friday, April 20.

An outstanding program of entertainment was presented as each den put on a skit in keeping with the monthly theme of "Tribadours." Variety of skits and musical numbers included minstrels, Hawaiian, beatniks and Casey Jones themes.

An amazing array of work and talent was displayed as the Cubs showed the results of the month's work on their genius kits. Out of the block of wood, coathanger, string and thumbtacks came Ferris wheels, rockets, Indian villages and many other fine examples of ingenuity and effort.

Talents were rewarded with numerous prizes and ribbons, and will be on display at the Pack 381 booth of Scouterama on June 2.

FIFTEEN NEW CUBS were inducted into the two new dens to be headed by Den Mothers June Nellison and Sherlee Bagnell. These additions make Pack 381 among the largest in the Rose Bowl District.

Graduation exercises were also in order for Kit Stroup and Mike Hutchinsome who were graduated from Webelos and accepted into Boy Scout Troop 373 in an impressive ceremony.
